The fine print

- No diving on day of departure + 24 hour no-fly time strictly enforced
- Some flash sale/discounted accommodation offers may specifically exclude this Dive Free option and this will be clearly noted in the accommodation offer itself.
- Any IHG One Rewards points redemptions or rewards for stays and IHG employee rate stays do not qualify for 'Dive Free' scuba diving.
- In the event a stay comprises 3+ fully paid nights plus complimentary, reward, points redemption or special promotion nights, diving is granted only for the qualifying fully paid days of stay under the Dive Free T&Cs, not the full stay.
- Unused dives can only be rolled over to other days at the absolute discretion of the Dive Centre Manager.
- Unused dives are not encashable or exchangeable for other services.
- Diver groups cannot exceed 6 divers per instructor; however group size may be less than this based on the skills, experience, site selection or prevailing conditions at the time.
- It is the Divers responsibility to be fit to dive.
